CHICKEN STEW WITH KALE & WHITE BEANS

PREP: 20 MINS • COOK: 1.75 HRS • SERVES: 6-8

INGREDIENTS

9 Chicken Drumsticks
 5 cups water
 5 tsp Better Than Bouillon Roasted Chicken Base
 ½ cup Flour
 ¼ cup olive oil
 1 cup yellow onion, diced
 1 10oz bag frozen baby carrots
 1 14.5 oz can dice Tomato with Roasted Garlic & Onion
 1 16 oz can Navy Beans- rinsed & drained
 5 cups kale, chopped
 1 tbsp granulated garlic
 1 ½ tbsp Louisiana Original Hot Sauce
 1 tsp paprika
 1 tbsp Italian Seasoning

DIRECTIONS

1. In a medium size mixing bowl, combine drumsticks, flour, granulated garlic, Louisiana hot sauce, and paprika. Gently toss the chicken until well coated and set aside.
2. Heat a medium size braising pan on high heat and gently pour in olive oil.
3. Add chicken to hot pan gradually and brown chicken on all sides. Turn heat down when chicken begins to stick a little and have some water on the side to deglaze pan and scrape bottom of pan as needed. (Note: The flour on the chicken will help make a light roux to thicken the stew)
4. When chicken has browned for about 10 minutes, add onions, baby carrots, diced tomatoes, kale, Italian seasoning, water, and Better Than Bouillon Chicken Base.
5. Bring to a boil and then reduce heat to low. As pot begins to come up to the boiling temperature, occasionally stir to make sure it does not stick to the bottom of the pan and to help dissolve the flour.
6. Place lid on pot when you have reduced the heat and set a timer for 1 hr and 30 minutes. Stir chicken stew occasionally to make sure it does not stick during the cook time.
